The Great Housefurnishing Event of the Spring-February FURNITURE At Wanamaker's

TODAY the result of five months of planning and three months of gathering is arrayed on the three Furniture floors of our new building for the delight of the artistic housekeeper with a bent for true

First of all, it is a magnificent presentation of fine furniture. Not a piece of it comes from a factory whose product can be criticised adversely. $95,000 worth of it comes from one of the best and most aristocratic furniture concerns in America, and will be sold at reductions of forty per cent. and more from the regular prices.

But the average reduction will be about A THIRD BELOW regular prices. A splendid economy on furniture of such artistic character and unchallenged quality of

This is the first of these great periodic occasions to be held in our new building. The increased variety presented is proven by the fact that THREE floors are as completely filled with the February offerings as was the single floor in the Stewart Building during

MORE FACTORIES have contributed this year than ever before, hence the broader variety for selection. But the same high standards have been upheld. Furniture that shows any imperfections upon inspection is always rejected and returned. We never offer it for sale AT ANY PRICE.

No matter how little, or how much you pay, in this February Sale, the Furniture will be RIGHT, and fully up, in every point of quality, workmanship and finish, to the value price that we quote on it-no matter for how much less you buy it.

THAT is the distinguishing characteristic of Wanamaker Trade Events. There is no quality risk. There is no mere question of getting your money's worth. You get all the VALUE announced, even up to double the worth of the price you pay. And A HALF MORE than money's worth is the AVERAGE saving.
